STATE OF UTAH BUDGET TIMELINE

State agencies and public and higher education submit planned budgets for the next fiscal year to the Governor's Office of Management and Budget (GOMB).
UCA 63J-1-201(3)(a)

The Legislative General Session begins the 4th Monday in January.
Utah Const. Art. VI, Sec. 2

(July 1st) Beginning of the new fiscal

GOMB, the Legislative Fiscal Analyst, and the Utah State Tax Commission develop consensus revenue estimates.

Appropriations subcommittees approve base budgets and prioritize funding adjustments.

The Legislative General Session lasts 45 calendar days.
Utah Const. Article VI Sec. 16

(June 30th) End of fiscal year

July	August	September	October	November	December	January	February	March	April	May	June

GOMB estimates anticipated revenues while analyzing base budgets and new funding requests. GOMB assists the Governor with the preparation of budget recommendations.

The Governor must release the recommended budget no later than 30 days before the Legislature convenes.
UCA 63J-1-201(1)

The Executive Appropriations Committee approves base budgets and other appropriations bills. The bills are passed by the full Legislature.

The Governor may sign or veto bills passed by the Legislature. The Governor may veto an appropriations line item. The last day to sign or veto bills is 20 days after the end of the session. The Legislature can override a veto with a two-thirds vote. Bills that are not signed or vetoed become law.
Utah Const. Art. VII, Sec. 8